

Level Playing Field

As part of the Level Playing Field (LPF) Weeks of Action campaign we want to hear about disabled fans experiences in attending live matches. Sport plays an integral part in society today and attending live matches more often than not provides a positive impact on an individual's life and we want to share these experiences.

About the interviewee

Example:- ...(name)... is a passionate(club)... fan who has been following the (club nickname) since ...(year)... and as well as being a season ticket holder at(ground)....., he/she travels to away games (including European games).

Q) What were your early experiences of attending live football games?

Q) What's the most enjoyable part about your matchday?

Q) What are the positive things your club does to make your matchday as inclusive and enjoyable as possible?

Q) In 3 words how would you describe your matchday experience?

Q) If you could give any advice to a disabled fan who hasn't yet attended a live football match, what would you say?

Q) What makes watching live sport more enjoyable than watching it on TV?

Q) Why, in your opinion is it important for disabled people to be able to have access to live sport?

Weeks of Action

For disabled sports fans